

EMIKO WENNERHOLT
Professional Violinist and Educator

Emiko Wennerholt has been a professional violinist for more than 16 years. She has performed internationally with orchestras in Portugal, Japan and Switzerland as well as with many in the U.S. She played violin in the Jekyll & Hyde Broadway musical and with the Andrea Bocelli concert orchestra in Tampa.

As an educator, Ms. Wennerholt has been teaching music at private and charter schools in Pasco County. She co-founded the Greater Pasco Youth Symphony in January 2012 and was its Director and Conductor for three years. She was a violin instructor at Miami Dade College and at the Greater Miami Youth Symphony.

Ms. Wennerholt studied music at the Interlochen Arts Academy, which draws highly talented students from all around the world. After her graduation, she continued her studies at the University of Miami where she received a Bachelor of Music in Violin Performance. Ms. Wennerholt did her graduate studies at the University of Texas at Austin where she earned a Master of Music in Violin Performance.