

Glenn Lenhard

Principal Trombone

Mr. Lenhard is from Rochester, N.Y. where he studied at the Eastman School of Music in their High School Student ensembles, The Greater Rochester Youth Wind Ensemble and The Rochester Youth Symphony, as Principal Trombonist under the direction of Donald Hunsberger and Howard Weiss.

His principal instructor was Robert Jones of Rochester.

Since then he has built a national reputation as a British Car Restoration Specialist, and is a popular local professional musician performing with Late Night Brass, Bob Boyds 42nd Street Band, The Tomkats, The Jazz Cellar Underground Orchestra of Dick Ramore, and many other venues including Dinner Theatres, Community Theatres, and Church Ensembles. He has performed with our present Musical Director in local Operatic Presentations as well.

He has successfully bridged the gap between the Jazz, Popular and Classical genres and has been doing so with the Tampa Bay Symphony for over 26 Seasons.
