

John Tombs

Violin

John, a native of England, who graduated with a degree of Bachelor of Science in Physics from Bristol University in England, travels weekly from Tampa to be part of our first violin section. He is a software engineer and enjoys reading, boating, computers and cycling. Much of his time is directed to encouraging his young son to study the piano.

John tells us he has received some honors and awards, but "nothing noteworthy."