

Klæe Peek is a professional hornist and science teacher in the Central Florida area. He studied horn performance at Florida Southern College with Dr. Candler Schaffer, a student of Philip Farkas. He is third horn for the Tampa Bay Symphony. In addition, Klæe is a member of the Imperial Symphony and South Shore Symphony Orchestras where he serves as third horn, and is co-principal for the Hollingsworth Winds in Lakeland Florida.