

Maribeth Radtke
Violin
Model Sandor Nagy

Hometown: Bethlehem, PA.

Maribeth Radtke has been a member of the orchestra for approximately twelve years. She is currently a member of the first violin section, but has also performed in the viola section.

Maribeth's first career was that of an instrumental music teacher in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. While in Harrisburg, she directed two senior high orchestras in the Central Dauphin School District and performed with the Harrisburg Symphony, a regional orchestra, for ten years, conducted two senior high orchestras, special string ensembles and directed the pit orchestra for shows such as "Anything Goes". She also played French horn with the Harrisburg City Band for a number of years.

Graduating with a Bachelor of Science Music Education from West Chester University in PA. She also holds a Master of Education, Curriculum and Instruction Technology, University of South Florida. She is employed as a Senior Instructional Designer at AAA Auto Club South designing e-learning and classroom training.

Maribeth enjoys cycling, running, lifting and her spinning class. She also enjoys being deep under the water and is a certified Rescue Diver.

Hometown: Bethlehem, PA

Occupation: LMS System Administrator/Sr. Instructional Designer